

The UMaine English Department and the National Poetry Foundation are pleased to announce an exciting new slate of literary events for the spring semester.
The programming is dedicated to the memories of Sylvester Pollet
and Burton Hatlen, two poets and friends of poetry whose incomparable company will be sorely missed.

new writing
series

SPRING '08

14february	MelNichols&RodSmith
21february	GradyAwardsWinners
28february	StephenCope&CatherineTaylor
20march	ElénaRivera&JenniferMoxley
26march	ThomasSayersEllis Hill Auditorium
03april	RodneyKoeneke&BenjaminFriedlander
10april	JuliaElliott
29april	PatriciaSithole&OtrudeMoyo Hill Auditorium

ALL EVENTS 4:30 PM
@SODERBERG AUDITORIUM unless otherwise noted
ALL EVENTS FREE & OPEN TO ALL

The New Writing Series is sponsored by the UMaine English Department
and the National Poetry Foundation
with support from the Lloyd H. Elliott fund and grants from the Cultural Affairs Committee.
The events of 26 March and 29 April are offered in collaboration with the Honors College.

For more information visit <http://nwsnews.wordpress.com/>